William W. Yen

Principal of Sapient Law Group, P.C. in Los Angeles, California

William has over seven years of experience covering a broad spectrum of legal expertise including business litigation, corporate and securities transactions, and immigration. William is consistently recognized by his peers for exceptional legal drafting. While William now focuses his practice primarily on EB-5 investment-based immigration and L-1/EB-1C, his well-rounded capabilities enable him to represent his clients effectively in a variety of circumstances and settings. In fact, William founded SLG on the premise that the firm could become a "streamlined solution" for any client that extends its impact and influence far beyond the reaches of its office.

William earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California at Berkeley and a post-baccalaureate degree in accounting from UCLA. Thereafter, William earned his Juris Doctor degree from Loyola Law School Los Angeles where he was awarded First Honors for his academic achievements in several courses, including legal negotiation and commercial arbitration. William is a member of the California State Bar Association, and is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Central District of California.
